

Nasser Bin Hamad International Youth Award

March 04, 2016

The Cultural office of the Embassy of Bahrain is offering an International Youth Creativity Award. The competition is for people of all nationalities between the ages of 14-30 years old and the awards range from $5,000-$11,000 USD. The deadline for submission is April 15, 2016.

The Ministry of Youth and Sports Affairs is launching the Nasser Bin Hamad International Youth Creativity Award. The award consists of six categories: Science, Architecture, Graphic Design, Art, Photography and Film Making. You can learn more about the categories here.

The aim of the award is to attract and develop young talents and to reduce the obstacles that many of today's youth face by giving them an opportunity to express themselves and showcase their talents and their creativity. Moreover, "the Nasser Bin Hamad International Youth Creativity Award aims to strengthen the relationship and ties between the youth of the Kingdom of Bahrain and youth from all around the world by enabling and promoting the exchange of experience and stimulating competitive spirit to create a positive worldwide competition among the participants."

Participation is categorized into three age groups for each of the six areas mentioned above. To read more about the awards and age groups please visit the award website.

The deadline for submission is April 15, 2016, but submissions 7 days before the deadline will be considered late. For more details on how to participate and submit your applications please check the official website.
