

Youth creativity contest seeks entries [MENA]

Deadline:

APRIL 15, 2016

Arab youth ages 14 to 30 can apply for a creativity award.

The Nasser Bin Hamad International Youth Creativity Award (NBH Award), organized by Bahrain's Ministry of Youth and Sports Affairs, is accepting entries. The award covers six areas: photography, art, graphic design, architecture, filmmaking and science.

Applicants can compete in the following age categories: first category (14 to 17 years), second category (18 to 24 years) and third category (25 to 30 years). Entries should be in Arabic or English.

The top three finalists from each award category in each age group will receive cash prizes. They will be invited to the Kingdom of Bahrain to attend the award ceremony.

All flight and accommodation expenses for the top three finalists will be covered by the NBH Award.

The deadline is April 15.

For more information, click here.